How to get Food

- You may attend up to 2 Hays County Food Bank distributions per week.
- Only one family is served per household.

Qualifications to receive food:

- At or below 185% of federal poverty guidelines
- Already receiving federal benefits (see website for full qualifying list)
- Experiencing a temporary emergency

Distribution types

- Choice distribution - As available, clients will be given a choice between food items from the following categories - frozen meat, loose fruits, loose vegetables, packaged fruits, packaged vegetables, salads, baked goods, and breads. Clients should bring their own bags or boxes.
 - Single round (●): Clients will only be able to go through a choice line one time at this type of distribution due to limitations in space and seating.
 - Multiple rounds (▲): Clients will be able to go through the choice line multiple times, until all food has been distributed.
- Bagged distribution (■): As available, clients will be provided with a pre-bagged variety from the following categories - frozen or canned meat, canned non-perishable items, loose fruits, loose vegetables, packaged fruits, packaged vegetables, salads, baked goods, and breads. Clients do not need to bring their own bags or boxes.

Distribution Policies & Procedures

We do not distribute food to clients from our office.

Please see the distribution schedule in the left panel for where and when to get food. On your first visit to a distribution, you will be issued a barcode. You will use this barcode to check in and receive services at all future Hays County Food Bank distributions.

Clients Must:

- Present Hays County Food Bank barcode (issued on first visit) to receive services. If barcode does not belong to the client, the person presenting the barcode must be listed as a secondary pick-up person (proxy).
- Arrive before posted distribution time, but no more than 45 minutes early. At choice distributions with multiple rounds (▲), anyone who arrives late (after the posted distribution time) will receive a yellow card and will receive food last. No one will be admitted 10 minutes after the posted distribution time. At choice distributions with one round (●) and bagged distributions (■), clients may arrive at any time during the posted range.
- Follow directions of staff member or distribution leader.
- Only send one person per household through the food line.
- Supervise children at all times. Parents of unsupervised children may be asked to leave.
- Not eat, drink, or smoke at any distribution location.
- Treat all persons with respect. If there is an issue, please report to a HCFB staff member. Staff reserves the right to refuse service to any uncooperative person.

Thank you for your patience.
