FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOLIDAY MEAL BOXES WILL BE GIVEN TO FAMILIES FACING FOOD INSECURITY THIS FRIDAY

San Marcos -- December 07, 2018

It's the season for giving and Hays County Food Bank is at it again. They will be distributing holiday meal boxes complete with a frozen turkey, corn, green beans, carrots, stuffing, mashed potatoes, pumpkin, cranberry sauce, and applesauce this Friday, December 7th. Low-income families and others facing food hardships are invited to visit their office between 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM to receive a box. Meal boxes are first come, first served while supplies last.

The food bank asks that no one comes before 11:30 AM as they will be working their normal operations until 12:00 PM and partners will be coming to and from the food bank. Please park along the street or in the Jackson Chapel parking lot across the street. Please do not block any driveways or park in the grass. Be respectful of the food bank's neighbors.

Hays County Food Bank is located at 220 Herndon Street, San Marcos. If you are a client of the food bank, please bring your barcode card. If you are not a client, the food bank will sign you up. You will not need to show identification or proof of address. If you have any questions, please contact Hays County Food Bank at (512) 392-8300 or email them at info@haysfoodbank.org.

In 2017, Hays County Food Bank and its 20+ partner agencies distributed 791,838 pounds of food to an average of 2,022 food insecure individuals each week. These residents were senior citizens, children, and many others facing economic challenges. "Food insecurity" refers to the availability of food and one's access to it. Hays County Food Bank is a not-for-profit organization that depends on volunteers and the generosity of the public to perform its mission.

Serving hungry people in Hays County since 1984.
